

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS

AT THE

ONE-PRICE STORE.

Side band suitings, closing price, 7c a yard.
Outing cloths in beautiful patterns, at 25c and 30c a yard.
Flannelettes in new and stylish patterns at 12 1/2c a yard.
Dress gingham, 5, 8 and 10c a yard.
A few pieces of Scotch gingham at 20c, worth 25c a yard.
Still a few challies at 4c and 6c a yard.
Also a few more pieces of checked mohair at 25c a yard.
Mohairs in all shades at 25, 37 1/2 and 50c a yard.
White goods in all the newest materials and at lowest prices.
A special bargain in pure Turkey table covers, 8, 10 and 12 1/2c each.
Table linens, towels and napkins in endless variety, at prices that defy competition.
Another case of white bed quilts at 25c each.
Ladies' and Gents' underwear and hosiery in great assortment and at bottom prices.
Large stock of bleached and unbleached cottons and sheetings in all widths.
Children's white lace hats and caps from 15c up.
Fans, Fans, Fans, Fans, from 2c up.

SNYDER.
HASSLER & MACBAIN.
134 SALEM AVENUE, S. W.

SCOTT and RIVES,

REAL ESTATE AGT's

105 JEFFERSON STREET.

Roanoke, Va.,

OFFER THE FOLLOWING

CHOICE PROPERTIES

100 ft. on Albermarle Street.. $1,900
60 ft. on Franklin Road. . . . 2,200
A choice cor. on Mountain St. . 3,000
10 ft. on Roanoke St. (fine shade) 5,000
Fine Residence on Jefferson St. 9,500

A rare bargain in an entirely new residence in Hyde Park. House contains Hot and Cold Water, Stable, Coal and Wood House. Will make terms to suit purchaser.

We have the cheapest business and residence properties in the city.

Correspondence solicited

SCOTT & RIVES.

ROANOKE.

BUILDING - COMPANY

E. H. STEWART, President.
H. G. COLE, Sec. and Treas.
J. F. BARBOUR, Gen'l Manager.

CONTRACTORS & BUILDERS.

Office with GRAY & BOSWELL, Jefferson Street.
Large Brick Buildings a Specialty.

Homes built on easy payments. Put ransage solicited. Estimates cheerfully furnished on application.

J. F. BARBOUR,

GENERAL MANAGER.

NOTICE.

At Cost to Close Business

I will offer my entire stock of

DRY GOODS, BOOTS AND SHOES AT

PRIME COST TO DISCONTINUE BUSINESS.

F. G. MAY,
142 FIRST AVENUE, S. W.

AT COST. AT COST.

H. M. LINNEY, SIBERT & CO.

Real Estate Agents,

Moomaw Block, No. 9.

We have a fine list of property from which to select.

In location, price and terms, we hope to suit all. If you have

PROPERTY

To sell or exchange, call.

Best references given. jun10/01

FORTUNES FOR MANY.

Allen, the blacksmith, is now a millionaire through replying to an advertisement of unclaimed estates etc., etc.—Times, London, Mar. 1st, 1888. If your ancestor came from the old country write to the EUROPEAN CLAIMS AGENCY, 59 Pearl St., and 24 Soane St., New York City, enclosing 25 cents for reply, and learn if you are an heir to any of the unclaimed estates there, worth more than half a billion dollars, that rights belong chiefly to American descendants of Europeans who came to America years ago. If your ancestors came over more than fifty years ago there is a probability that you are heirs to a fortune. au-28-61

Rosenbaum Bros.

ARE

Too Busy

To write up their

Fall Advertisement.

They are receiving

FALL STOCK

OF

DRESS GOODS,

Etc., Etc., Etc.

Rosenbaum Bros.,

42 SALEM AVE., S. W.

WORKING HARD.

THE LADIES HAVE SELECTED

HOSPITAL SITES.

BOTH IN THE MELROSE ADDITION

They Want $5,000 to Start With-A Ten-Room Wooden Building to be Erected-To be Called the Home for the Sick.

The Ladies' Union Benevolent Society has been organizing for the success of its efforts to provide a temporary hospital. The ladies have found two lots which they can secure at a reasonable price as soon as the necessary funds are raised. Both are in the Melrose addition. One is situated in the block between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, near where the dummy line to Salem turns into Orange avenue. The other is in Hyde Park. Both are covered with natural groves, and are sufficiently large for the needs of the institution. Either of the lots is admirably situated for the purpose, and is large enough to be convenient, and sufficiently removed from the stir and noise of the business part of the city.

The ladies have decided that they will raise $5,000 and erect a ten-room wooden building for temporary use. The city is to be divided into districts and ladies appointed to make a thorough canvass of the whole city. Those interested in the movement have already seen a number of the prominent business men of the city, who have given assurance of their substantial support, and many have volunteered to aid the enterprise. Mr. J. H. Sands, of the Norfolk and Western railroad, has pledged his support for the establishment of the institution.

The ladies wish it to be understood that they are not antagonizing the movement for a permanent and substantial hospital, but when such an institution is established, if they succeed in their efforts, they will be ready to turn over whatever they may have if it is deemed best for the suffering men and women in their care. They will not cut their institution a hospital, but a home for the sick. The ladies of the society are in earnest in this movement and are now confident that their plans will succeed.

A largely attended meeting was held at the Y. M. C. A. Hall Tuesday afternoon and evening last, for the purpose of raising funds for the hospital. At the meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. W. P. C. Hall, president; Mrs. J. T. Smoot, treasurer; and Mrs. J. T. Hall, secretary.

The mass meeting, which was discussed at the previous meeting, was called as soon as the necessary arrangements could be made. The society desires THE TIMES to say that all ladies who are interested in aiding this pressing need of the community are invited to become members of the society and help in the good work. The meetings will hereafter be held regularly at the Y. M. C. A. hall every Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

"REVA KEE"

The Cry that Roanoke is About to Hear in Her Streets.

Roanoke will soon have a cab service. A company has been formed with a capital of $5,000 with privileges to increase to $25,000. The system will be in operation as soon as the cabs can be procured and other necessary arrangements made, probably about the 1st of October. Mr. Emory Barry, of Baltimore, is the instigator of the movement. He is now in the city perfecting arrangements.

Four cabs will be put on at first, and they will be used on pay fares, under the system in operation in all large cities. The headquarters will be at the Exchange buildings.

The directors of the company are S. A. Wetzler, J. Younger, Emory Barry, R. B. Taylor and W. H. Oliver. The officers are, S. A. Wetzler, president; Emory Barry, vice president; R. B. Taylor, secretary; and H. M. Dickinson, treasurer.

In conversation with a TIMES man last night, Mr. Barry said that the company will patronize Roanoke industries as far as possible, in supplying their material. They are already negotiating for the manufacture of the harness by Roanoke harness makers.

THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE

Meets at O. D. Derr's Office and Organizes for Work.

A meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee was held last night at the office of Oscar D. Derr & Co. R. A. Beckner, O. D. Derr, S. W. Terrill, Frank Coffman and M. C. Thomas were present. The resignation of J. A. McConnell was read and accepted, and Hugh Wiley selected to fill the vacancy.

M. C. Thomas was re-elected chairman, and Oscar D. Derr, secretary. W. S. Gooch, J. B. Levy, Thomas W. Miller, R. J. Eckloff and Louis W. Terrill were appointed on the finance committee. Work in the campaign will be begun at once.

The committee adjourned to meet subject to the call of the president. All the members of the committee are tried and experienced workers, and matters will now move forward with a rush. A political canvass will be made with the object of finding out the status of every voter in Roanoke, as well as those who are not yet entitled to a vote.

A Petty Swindler.

In February, 1889, John M. Martin came to Roanoke, representing himself to be from New York, and a soliciting agent for the Eastern Collecting Agency. He succeeded in getting $25 out of Messrs. Miller & Smith, who learned not long afterward that there was no such firm or corporation as the Eastern Collecting Agency.

Tuesday Martin appeared in Roanoke again, and made several victims for small amounts. Yesterday a warrant for his arrest was issued by Judge Howerton, and he was arrested at Salem by Constable Frank Bravford. Martin is now peeping through the bars, having been brought to Roanoke yesterday afternoon. He recently stuck Johnson & Phleger, of Christiansburg, for a small amount, and has made victims in a number of towns in the State. His case will be heard by Judge Howerton on the 12th.

No house in the country has a higher reputation for fine pianos and organs and reasonable prices than the Hobbie Music Company, Lynchburg, Va. It is therefore to your interest to examine their instruments before purchasing. They never lose a customer when quality of goods and prices count for anything.

FOR THE CONVENTION.

And Against the Tax on Real Estate Transfers.

Considerable interest has been aroused among Roanoke real estate men in the proposed convention of the "dealers in dirt" to be held in October. A TIMES reporter saw a number more of the real estate dealers yesterday. Mr. W. F. Baker, of the firm of Baker & Marckley, said: "Such a meeting, if properly conducted, could not result otherwise than in much good to the men engaged in the business, and would doubtless do much to help develop the resources of the State."

"What about the one-fourth of one per cent. tax?" "It is simply iniquitous, and it is important for the real estate men to meet together and take some steps to effect its repeal."

J. H. Featherston said: "There are a number of things the real estate men should look into, and about which they should come to some definite understanding for concert of action, and I know of no better way of accomplishing this than by meeting in convention. This unjust tax of 1 of 1 per cent. on cur'transactions is one thing I refer to. It is the most outrageous oppression ever imposed upon any set of business men, and the real estate men should take active steps for its repeal."

Mr. W. A. Byrd, of the firm of Moomaw, Byrd & Co., said: "Real estate men can benefit one another by meeting together, and this unjust tax makes the movement an important one."

Mr. W. M. Yager, of the firm of Yager & Campbell, said: "Such a convention would doubtless accomplish much good. It is important that some action be taken about this unjust tax upon the business."

Rev. H. M. Linsey said: "It would be an advantage to the business for the real estate men to meet together and consider the movement. It is important on account of the outrageous tax upon the transactions of the men who are doing so much to develop the State."

D. H. Scott thought some action should be taken in regard to this tax, and that a convention of the men interested was the best way to start. John R. Hockaday said: "I believe a convention of the real estate men would do much good if properly managed. As to the tax matter, I think it is important for the real estate men to meet together and consider the movement. It is important on account of the outrageous tax upon the transactions of the men who are doing so much to develop the State."

FOR A SECOND CHURCH.

The Presbyterians Declare the Necessity for Another Organization.

The congregational meeting of the Presbyterian Church last night resolved that the time has come for the erection of a second Presbyterian church in Roanoke. After some discussion of plans, etc., the meeting decided to appoint a committee on ways and means to look after securing a suitable location and to make arrangements for raising the necessary funds for its erection.

Colonel Thomas Lewis, Messrs. W. L. McClannahan and J. H. Earman were appointed on the committee with instructions to report to an adjourned meeting of the congregation. The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the committee.

SPEAKER REED'S FIGHT.

The Democrats Preparing to Give Him a Hard Tussle.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 3.—A quiet but persistent still hunt is being conducted by the Democrats, who hope to be able to retire Speaker Reed, as the first district is and has always been a close one, but Republican speakers of national reputation are being brought into the district.

It is alleged that Senator Gorham, of Maryland, came to Portland and spent Sunday conferring with the Democratic leaders, and that he brought an immense amount of cash with him to be used on "doubtful" voters.

The Republicans in the First district expect to return Mr. Reed by a handsome majority. Chairman Manley of the State committee, told a correspondent today that he looked for a majority for Governor Burleigh in at least 10,000, and hoped to make it 12,000. Reed will, however, run his ticket. The Democrats are receiving heavy financial assistance from outside and are betting even money that they will win him.

Cremation at the Montgomery White.

MONTGOMERY WHITE, Sept. 3.—The bridge construction was surprised last night on leaving the ball room to meet about a dozen of the guests in long, black robes and wearing masks. In the lead was Mrs. Jordan with the torch, followed by Captain White and Mrs. Vandiver, bearing the remains of Annie Rooney, one of the women who had been killed by the explosion of the dynamite at the Montgomery White.

The remains were followed by the chorus composed of Mrs. George Sexton, Mrs. McCallan, Mand and Hattie Weir, Miss Vandiver, Miss Sexton, Miss Mand Sullivan, Judge Page and daughter, Lawyer Thomas Sullivan and Mr. Thomas, singing "Little Annie Rooney."

Good Bids for City Bonds.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Sept. 3.—The bridge construction yesterday opened the bids yesterday for the 6 per cent. bridge bonds, $25,000 of which have been issued, bearing 6 per cent. and to run thirty years, the corporation reserving the right to return them in ten years. Bids were made for all of them, but the committee accepted the bids of Mrs. J. L. Green, of this city, for $10,000 at 107 1/2 and Mr. John F. Scott, of this city, for $5,000 at 107. The remainder of the bonds are held for future consideration. There was a bid of 106 1/2 by a Baltimore party for the entire $25,000.

Match Billiards.

The match game of billiards was played in the elegant billiard room of Ormsby's cafe last night was one of the most interesting ever seen in Roanoke. It was between Messrs. L. A. Rice, of Philadelphia, who is recognized as a professional, Mr. Rice won by a score of 300 to 278, and was presented with a purse. Mr. Henry Stoll acted as scorer. Some improvement in the game was shown by the billiard room, making it a very attractive place for the game, which was witnessed by a considerable crowd of interested spectators.

The Times office has been removed to the new building corner Third and First streets, southwest.

ROANOKE WINS.

THE MAGIC CITY NINE TOO MUCH FOR WINSTON.

SCORE ONE GOOD GAME FOR US

Roanoke, 4; Winston, 0.—But the Winston Baseball Club, champions of North and South Carolina arrived in the city yesterday morning over the Norfolk and Western railroad, and tried their luck with the Roanoke giants. They came out with an unbroken chain of fifteen victories, and the Roanoke's have the honor of being first club to defeat them.

The hits were almost evenly divided, Roanoke getting nine and Winston eight, but those of the visiting club always came at inopportune times when the bases were empty. The Winston's are a strong team and put up a stiff game of ball. They will doubtless show the home nine that they are able to take care of themselves before the week is out.

The first inning was productive of no runs for either side, but in the second Roanoke scored one. Kirby fouled out. Irvin Brodie got to first on a fumble by Wade; Alex. Brodie struck out. Dolan knocked one to right field and went to second on a wild pitch which was Widgin's third strike, and he reached first. I. Brodie coming home; Wigmore did at first. For Winston, J. Jones struck out; Wade reached first on a scratch hit, stole second, and then Jones hit Brodie, who was thrown out at the plate by Ford; Bennett out at first. Roanoke, 1; Winston, 0.

The third, fourth, and fifth innings were not marked by any run-getting, but the fielding was very sharp, and the several good plays by both sides were heartily applauded.

It was in the sixth that an opportunity was given for free exercise of the lungs, and more than one crank was heard to mutter, "The bleachers are a lot better than the field." The game was then a close one, and the next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

Keeley having hurt his hand severely, Lanier took his place behind the bat in the eighth and finished the game in style. The bleachers were a lot better than the field. The next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

Another run was added. Widgin hit back of short, and was advanced to second. The next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

The first inning was productive of no runs for either side, but in the second Roanoke scored one. Kirby fouled out. Irvin Brodie got to first on a fumble by Wade; Alex. Brodie struck out. Dolan knocked one to right field and went to second on a wild pitch which was Widgin's third strike, and he reached first. I. Brodie coming home; Wigmore did at first. For Winston, J. Jones struck out; Wade reached first on a scratch hit, stole second, and then Jones hit Brodie, who was thrown out at the plate by Ford; Bennett out at first. Roanoke, 1; Winston, 0.

The third, fourth, and fifth innings were not marked by any run-getting, but the fielding was very sharp, and the several good plays by both sides were heartily applauded.

It was in the sixth that an opportunity was given for free exercise of the lungs, and more than one crank was heard to mutter, "The bleachers are a lot better than the field." The game was then a close one, and the next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

Keeley having hurt his hand severely, Lanier took his place behind the bat in the eighth and finished the game in style. The bleachers were a lot better than the field. The next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

Another run was added. Widgin hit back of short, and was advanced to second. The next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

The first inning was productive of no runs for either side, but in the second Roanoke scored one. Kirby fouled out. Irvin Brodie got to first on a fumble by Wade; Alex. Brodie struck out. Dolan knocked one to right field and went to second on a wild pitch which was Widgin's third strike, and he reached first. I. Brodie coming home; Wigmore did at first. For Winston, J. Jones struck out; Wade reached first on a scratch hit, stole second, and then Jones hit Brodie, who was thrown out at the plate by Ford; Bennett out at first. Roanoke, 1; Winston, 0.

The third, fourth, and fifth innings were not marked by any run-getting, but the fielding was very sharp, and the several good plays by both sides were heartily applauded.

It was in the sixth that an opportunity was given for free exercise of the lungs, and more than one crank was heard to mutter, "The bleachers are a lot better than the field." The game was then a close one, and the next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

Keeley having hurt his hand severely, Lanier took his place behind the bat in the eighth and finished the game in style. The bleachers were a lot better than the field. The next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

Another run was added. Widgin hit back of short, and was advanced to second. The next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

The first inning was productive of no runs for either side, but in the second Roanoke scored one. Kirby fouled out. Irvin Brodie got to first on a fumble by Wade; Alex. Brodie struck out. Dolan knocked one to right field and went to second on a wild pitch which was Widgin's third strike, and he reached first. I. Brodie coming home; Wigmore did at first. For Winston, J. Jones struck out; Wade reached first on a scratch hit, stole second, and then Jones hit Brodie, who was thrown out at the plate by Ford; Bennett out at first. Roanoke, 1; Winston, 0.

The third, fourth, and fifth innings were not marked by any run-getting, but the fielding was very sharp, and the several good plays by both sides were heartily applauded.

It was in the sixth that an opportunity was given for free exercise of the lungs, and more than one crank was heard to mutter, "The bleachers are a lot better than the field." The game was then a close one, and the next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

Keeley having hurt his hand severely, Lanier took his place behind the bat in the eighth and finished the game in style. The bleachers were a lot better than the field. The next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

Another run was added. Widgin hit back of short, and was advanced to second. The next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

The first inning was productive of no runs for either side, but in the second Roanoke scored one. Kirby fouled out. Irvin Brodie got to first on a fumble by Wade; Alex. Brodie struck out. Dolan knocked one to right field and went to second on a wild pitch which was Widgin's third strike, and he reached first. I. Brodie coming home; Wigmore did at first. For Winston, J. Jones struck out; Wade reached first on a scratch hit, stole second, and then Jones hit Brodie, who was thrown out at the plate by Ford; Bennett out at first. Roanoke, 1; Winston, 0.

The third, fourth, and fifth innings were not marked by any run-getting, but the fielding was very sharp, and the several good plays by both sides were heartily applauded.

It was in the sixth that an opportunity was given for free exercise of the lungs, and more than one crank was heard to mutter, "The bleachers are a lot better than the field." The game was then a close one, and the next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

Keeley having hurt his hand severely, Lanier took his place behind the bat in the eighth and finished the game in style. The bleachers were a lot better than the field. The next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

Another run was added. Widgin hit back of short, and was advanced to second. The next ball was where the big center fielder wanted it, and he caught it on the end of his bat, sending the little sphere over the right field fence for a home run. Great Scott! How the crowd cheered! The first of the visiting men were easy victims. Roanoke, 2; Winston, 0.

A BUFFALO SENSATION.

A Prominent Citizen Charged With an Egly Offense.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 3.—A sensation was created in society and business circles today by the announcement that papers had been filed in a suit for $10,000 damages by John F. McLaughlin against Edward Burkhardt for criminal intimacy with and alienating the affections of plaintiff's wife. Plaintiff was until recently a postoffice clerk, and the Buffalo manager of the Elmira Telegram, and defendant is a member of a real estate firm, and is quite wealthy.

The complainant charges that the defendant, by force, violated plaintiff's wife in October, 1889, and by dint of threats and promises succeeded in continuing the intimacy for a period of two years. Mrs. McLaughlin has confessed, and has made affidavit to effect as stated above. What adds to the sensation is the fact that cards are out for the marriage of Burkhardt and Miss Laura Schmidt, daughter of Lorenz Schmidt, a well-known and wealthy citizen.

A fresh element of sensation was injected into the matter this afternoon by an announcement that Burkhardt and Miss Schmidt were married this morning at the German Catholic Church, and immediately left the city on their wedding trip. Report says the marriage was hurried in order to avoid the impending publication of the scandal, and that the date originally fixed for the wedding was next Saturday.

VERMONT REPUBLICANS.

A Most Surprising Disappearance of Their Usual Majority.

RUTLAND, Vt., Sept. 3.—The greatest excitement prevails throughout the State over the unexpected result of the election today. It was an off year, and the Republicans made but little effort to bring out their vote, and the result shows to right that they fell into a trap, and the State seems on the verge of going Democratic. At any rate, if Page, Republican, pulls through, it will be by the smallest margin. His party ever received in Vermont.

Report received from over 150 towns up to midnight show a Republican net loss of fifty-three per cent. The ticket has evidently been unmercifully cut. Some of the returns are startling. In Windham county, a Republican stronghold, sixteen towns give Page a majority of 583; falling off, 1,394. Catalonia county shows a falling off of 600 in Republican majorities.

A dispatch from Ludlow reports Democratic gains on all sides. Irvin Brigham, Democrat, the first Democratic representative in its history. White River Junction reports that twenty cities and towns, including Burlington, show a Republican net loss of 2,041; same two years ago giving Republicans 5,696 and Democrats 2,489.